Angie Agnoni is a consulting and teaching astrologer. She is a graduate from the International Academy of Astrology (IAA) and over the years received invaluable mentorship and guidance from many prolific pioneers in the field of astrology. She serves as Lake County Astrological Association's (LCAA) Vice President and is Reiki 1 certified, a former soccer player, and enjoys yoga and dance.

Join us at BTS for an evening presentation under the stars. Learn the art and science behind the ancient study of astrology. Find out what astrology is and how understanding it can enrich your life. We will discuss how astrology is a tool to better know yourself and others. We'll stroll through the 12 signs of the zodiac, talking on each one and how they relate to one another creating synergy in our lives. Since BTS is all about the body, special attention will be made to how your zodiac sign relates to your health and physical performance.
